Total expenditure in health care in Nordic countries, share of GDP

The health care expenditure as a share of GDP has reached the same level as Nordic countries in general. The share is approximately the same in Sweden, Norway and Iceland. Only Denmark's proportion is clearly higher than it is in other Nordic countries.

Source: OECD 2015